Tax receipt requests

The South African Revenue Services do not allow us to issue tax deductible receipts to donors as, according to law, our activities do not qualify for approval.

See attached letter from the South African Revenue Services

However, what can be done is to provide all the transaction printouts and confirm on an official letterhead that Clash of Minds received the funds.

If that will suffice please send your request to the email address:
donations@clashofminds.com.

Dear Sir / Madam

APPLICATION FOR INCOME TAX EXEMPTION APPROVED: AMAZING DISCOVERIES MINISTRIES-AFRICA NPC PBO NO. 930058391.

We refer to the application whereby a request for approval in terms section 18A was received:

1. To qualify for approval in terms of section 18A(1)(a) of the Income Tax Act(the Act), and to issue tax deductible receipts to donors, the public benefit organisation must be conducting public benefit activities listed in Part II of the Ninth Schedule of the Act within the Republic; and

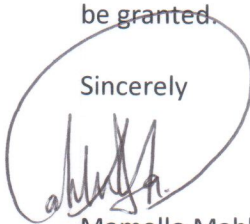

The objectives of the organisation as per the founding documents are that of:

- Religion or Belief Activities

The activity falls within the ambit of the public benefit activity listed in subparagraph 5(a) of Part I of the Ninth Schedule to the Act. This activity is described as "the promotion or practice of religion which encompasses acts of worship, witness, teaching and community service based on a belief in a deity". This activity does not qualify for section 18 approval.

In light of the abovementioned, the approval in terms of section 18A of the Act cannot be granted.

Sincerely

Mamello Mahlumba
